The Market Street Railway Company submitted an agreement for the attachment of a traffic signal to one of their guy wire poles located at the corner of Mission street and Hillcrest drive. Among the spectacular features will be the coming of stirring and colorful cavalcades from all surrounding states, as well as Canada and Mexico, with cowboys, Indians and others; the arrival of the United States Fleet direct from maneuvers in Pacific waters; the dazzling pageant at Crissy Field with John Charles Thomas, famous baritone, a cast of 3000 and a 100 piece orchestra; brilliant day and illuminated night parades; International night in the foreign colonies, sports, dancing, balls, fireworks and various other festivities.

CORNERSTONE FOR NEW HI GYM TO BE LAID SUNDAY

Once a dream—now it is becoming a reality. Pioneers conceived the idea of building a fine gymnasium and swimming pool for Jefferson Union High School. A year ago progressive minded citizens displayed the true spirit of Daly City and vicinity by voting bonds to erect the much needed edifice. Today ribs of the steel and tons of concrete are taking an objective form which will be one of the greatest assets to community life in this municipality.

At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon (May 16) the cornerstone of the new gymnasium will be laid. The high school band and a capella choir will participate in the program. Dr. Walter Dexter, state superintendent of schools, is expected to be present and will officiate in the ceremonies.

Local citizens are proud of their new gymnasium. If on May 25 citizens approve another civic improvement program, in less than a year from now residents here may point again with pride—to a new city hall and library, a well developed park and playground and the extension of public utilities into the southern portion of our city.

FINANCIAL STATISTICS ARE NOW COMPLETE FOR PROPOSED BONDS TO PROVIDE CIVIC IMPROVEMENT

Total Cost Of Six Projects
Is $217,830 — Government
Grant $102,830 — Local
Bonds $115,000

Financial statistics on the proposed bonds to provide six needed major civic improvements for Daly City are now available. A summary discloses that the average Daly City home owner will have to pay only 80 cents per year in increased taxes in order to float the bond issues.

This exceptionally low rate is due to the fact that federal grants are now available and will be supplied on the application of city officials. Federal grants will cover nearly one-half of the total costs of the improvements. The total cost of the entire project is $217,830. The federal grant will cover $102,830 of this amount, leaving Daly City but $115,000 to supply.

INCREASE SMALL

Floating the $115,000 bonds will result in an increased Daly City tax rate of only approximately 13 cents.

At no other time in the history of Daly City has federal money been available in the amounts which may now be had. The opportune moment for Daly City to procure long needed civic and cultural improvements is now, according to all progressive residents. In all probability such generous aid will not again be extended to this community.

INDIVIDUAL COSTS

Individually, the statistics on the proposals follow: The library will cost $20,800. A federal grant of $6800 will leave but $14,000 for local bonds

Pedestrian Day Is To Be May 27

The Golden Gate Bridge will be thrown open to the public for the first time on Pedestrian Day, May 27, when the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta begins a week of festivities.

The longest single span in the world will be opened simultaneously on both the San Francisco and Marin sides at 6 a. m. and will be closed at 6 p. m.

No vehicles will be allowed on the bridge on Pedestrian Day. The bridge is to be dedicated and formally opened to traffic on May 28 with elaborate ceremonies at the Waldo approach in Marin County, the San Francisco Toll Plaza and at Crissy Field.

The two 10½ foot sidewalks will give the public an opportunity to cross on one side of the bridge and walk back on the other, if they so desire.

It is estimated by bridge officials that a crowd of more than 100,000 will view the bridge on Pedestrian Day and arrangements are being made with the military authorities, the State Highway Patrol and San Francisco and other police departments to handle the situation.

SAN FRANCISCO MILLION DOLLAR MINT TO OPEN

New Location At Market And Buchanan Streets—Old Site To Be Sold

The San Francisco new million dollar United States Mint will be formally dedicated tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, at 3 o'clock.

To construct the great granite, steel and concrete fortress like edifice required twenty months of intensive work.

The dedication ceremonies will take less than an hour.

There will be five brief talks by federal, state and municipal officials, music by the Municipal Band, vocal numbers, with invocation and benediction—all in the inner court of the imposing structure.

In the courtyard outside there will be the fanfare of bugles followed by the raising of the Stars and Stripes to the top of the flagstaff.

From that moment the United States Mint at San Francisco will be officially at Buchanan and Market streets. The old mint at Fifth and Mission streets, where Francis Bret Harte once worked and Ambrose Bierce labored, and billions of dollars in gold and silver were coined in the 63 years of its activity, will be just another piece of federal estate on the market awaiting the highest bidder.

$1,700,000 Spent For Construction

Over $1,700,000 have already been distributed to California farmers for their participation in the 1936 agricultural conservation program, according to the secretary of the State Agricultural Conservation Committee, with headquarters in Berkeley.

Of this amount, over $1,600,000 went to farmers for diverting their cropland from soil depleting crops to soil conserving crops and for carrying out approved soil building practices.

Over $40,000 of the total payments thus far distributed have gone to stockmen for carrying out approved range building practices under the range improvement phase of the 1936 AAA conservation program.

BIG WHEAT CROP

The department of agriculture this week forecast a winter wheat crop of 654,295,000 bushels, the largest since 1931.

Building Program Hits High Record

The current home building program in Northern California will eclipse the ten year record set in 1936 if the increasing number of mortgages accepted for insurance by the Federal Housing Administration is any criterion.

What is believed to be a national record was established in the local district office during a recent week when 601 cases were processed, involving a total in excess of $2,700,000.

"From the fact that our office insured mortgages at the rate of two and one-half million dollars a week, we glean a fairly comprehensive idea of home building activities actually under way in this district," declared the chief underwriter for the FHA in Northern California. "Never in the history of this office, or to my knowledge in any other insuring office of the Federal Housing Administration, has this figure been approached."

FOLSOM SUICIDE

BOARD REFUSES TO CALL VOTE ON AMENDMENT

District Attorney Rulings Declare Proposals For Changes Illegal

The Board of Supervisors, Wednesday afternoon of this week, refused to call a special county election on June 22 to vote on proposed charter amendments.

Cancellation of the election date followed a ruling by District Attorney Farrell that provision of the recently circulated petitions calling for a special election are illegal.

On motion of Supervisor James a resolution was unanimously adopted which rescinded and vacated an order of the board, made April 14, declaring its intention to call an election on the amendment. James said he was absolutely opposed to calling the election and spending the taxpayers money until all the uncertain legal points have been cleared up through process of law.

HOLIDAY

Supervisor Beer introduced a resolution recommending that the county observe Thursday, May 27, as a holiday. Celebration activities for the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta will start on that day. The resolution suggested that all county and school employes and workers in private industry be given a vacation May 27.

to cover. A long needed city hall of adequate size for Daly City will cost $53,000. The expected federal grant of $19,000 leaves $34,000 to meet. The Vista Grande Park development will cost $82,000. A generous allotment of $54,330 leaves but $28,000 to appropriate. The Crocker Tract playground, costing $15,000, will be paid for by a federal grant of $10,000 and bonds for $14,000. The extension of the fire alarm system will be covered entirely by Daly City for the sum of $3,000. The extension of the water system, a more expensive undertaking, will total $43,700. Bonds are to be issued for $22,000 and the government grant of $21,700 will meet the balance of this expenditure.

Total costs of the projects amount to $217,830. The total federal grant will be $102,830. Bonds of $115,000 issued by Daly City will complete the expenditures.

COMPARATIVE

It is apparent that the floating of bonds will cost Daly City taxpayers a very nominal sum in comparison to the advantages the planned civic improvements will give this community. A new city hall is imperative. The present one is a disgrace to an up and coming community like Daly City. It inadequately houses city departments. There is not room for a large public gathering of any nature.

The library was constructed and equipped to meet the needs of not half the present number of residents here. So long as there is no adequate library, cultural life will lag in this city.

Child welfare demands the development of Vista Grande Park and the playground in the Crocker Tract. Community beauty and recreational facilities can be immeasurably increased by these two improvements.

Both fire alarm and water systems in the southern portion of Daly City are inadequate. This may be remedied by the new bond proposals. Insurance rates in that section will be decreased as soon as a dependable fire alarm system is provided. The extension of the water system would soon pay for itself, according to engineers. The water of Daly City is excellent in quality and should be utilized.

All wide awake individuals and organizations of the community feel that Daly City must not miss this unusually opportune occasion to insure civic advancement and cultural progress.

PIONEER MATRON PASSES AWAY

On his return to the family home on Hillcrest drive, Monday afternoon of this week about 4 o'clock, William Wohlers found his mother lying on her bed, apparently asleep. He tried to arouse her and, when she did not awake, he called a physician, who informed the son his mother had passed away some hours earlier. Death was probably due to a heart attack.

Mrs. Wohlers was a pioneer resident of Daly City and had a host of friends who will mourn a good friend and a most kindly neighbor.

Five children—Mrs. Marie Beardsley, Adele, William, George and Henry Wohlers—survive. Other surviving relatives are two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Frische and Mrs. Emma Teil, and a brother, William Ehlers.

The funeral was conducted from the mortuary chapel of W. C. Lasswell & Co., Wednesday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock. Interment was in Olivet Memorial Park.

Daly City Legion Auxiliary Unit

The War Mothers of Daly City Post and Unit, American Legion and Auxiliary, were honored at a Mothers Day meeting, observed Wednesday evening of last week. An excellent program was arranged by the Junior Girls, who were assisted by the Sons of the Legion.

The joint meeting of the Twenty-sixth District Legion and Auxiliary convened in South San Francisco, Friday evening of last week. A large delegation attended from Daly City Post and Unit.

May 29 has been designated by the Department of California as Poppy Day. Twelve million poppies, worn in honor of the World War dead, is the goal of the Auxiliary in its memorial poppy program, according to the National Auxiliary headquarters.

Mrs. Hilda Prziborski, the Poppy chairman of Daly City Unit, says, "The message of the little paper flower this year will be 'Honor the dead and aid the living.' The poppies will be sold here and throughout the nation by volunteer workers from the Auxiliary on the Saturday before Memorial Day. All money received will go to the work of the Auxiliary and Legion for relief and welfare of disabled veterans and their children." Mrs. Prziborski urges every one to wear a red paper poppy on Memorial Day and help some worthy veteran who once took up arms to help you.

"Our" Vacation Will Begin Next Monday

A long anticipated vacation is soon to be realized by the editor and Mrs. Pitschke. They are leaving, next week Monday, on an extended auto trip, visiting relatives in Rockford, Ill.; Fort Atkinson, Wis., and Washington, D. C. They will try to locate the "ole swimmin' hole" and other boyhood haunts along the "Big River," where Bill spent much time when a barefoot boy.

The travelers plan to eat baked beans in Boston, dodge traffic in New York City and as mere specks gaze at the gigantic wonders of Niagara Falls. In many a print shop the editor will meet friends he has not greeted for many years.

Although too busy for very much message writing, there will be moments when they will be thinking of Daly City and the folks who make this town such a wonderful place to live and be a part of. "Big Lizzie" will be bringing them back in about six weeks.

ROOSEVELT KNOWS TEMPER OF PEOPLE

By J. W. MARCHBANK
Pioneer in Frontier Mining Work

As has been pointed out before, the Tennessee Valley Authority is the most interesting social experiment in the country. Under the leadership of President Roosevelt many economic changes have been brought about, but none more important than the working out of the comprehensive scheme for the recovery and development of the vast region controlled by the Authority. He recognized the men and women of the nation were with him and lost no time in carrying on.

One of the most luminous expositions of the TVA is by Odette Keun in a book called "A Foreigner Looks at the TVA." It gives the complete history of the great undertaking, beginning with the dam at Muscle Shoals as a war project in 1916. United States Senator George Norris had the original idea and one of the first things Franklin Roosevelt, when elected the first time, did was to set machinery going for the fulfillment of plans formulated by the Senator. Miss Keun gives a vivid description of the watershed. Not only that, she tells of the people who inhabit the immense area. As Stuart Chase said in a recent review of the book, the TVA is primarily a scheme for working with nature in a balanced use of land and water.

We learn from official statistics of the soils, forests and waters of the Tennessee Basin. Such interesting topics as flood control, navigation, power, erosion control and the new agricultural pattern are discussed by the thoroughly informed French woman. Miss Keun is frankness itself. For example, as to court decrees that have retarded the work in some measure, she says:

"The injunctions not only protect the companies as to their own properties in areas they now serve, but they hinder the people of other areas who own their own power and distribution systems from becoming purchasers of the TVA electricity. It really is unbelievable. The utilities snatch at everything. I wonder they don't pounce on the milk a kitten sucks from its mother."

The recent warning to federal government employees by President Roosevelt not to speculate in stocks has been the subject of much comment, some favorable and some unfavorable. A few critics claim there is no clear-cut attitude by the administration toward the stock market; in fact, that it has varied from time to time. Most of the writers, however, hold the opinion the President is on the right track.

Expansion of the warning to the general public is interpreted in most circles as indicating the President is not enthusiastic to the idea of the average citizen buying shares on credit.

The interest of the administration in price increases and in monopolies is seen to have some connection with its stock market policy. The intention apparently is to force more buying power into the lower sections of the population and possibly to have some type of government price control.

On account of the talk about the balancing of the budget there has been a bit of discussion as to plans by the administration to attempt to bring expenditures into line with revenues by having the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the big lending agency, bring pressure on banks, railroads and other borrowers for repayments. Such pressure does not appear likely, as legally the loans cannot be called except on maturities. It is recalled, too, that when payments are made it has been the practice of the R. F. C. to grant extensions.

The Deeds We Need

A little song when things go wrong,
A little kindness, too,
To keep us gay at work or play,
How fine for me and you!

A word of cheer to ease some fear
That darkens someone's day,
An effort made to really aid
A brother on his way!

A little smile, each little while,
To cheer some fellow's life;
These are the deeds that mankind needs
Mid worldly care and strife!

Who can divine of aught more fine
For man to leave behind
Than this fair fame: "He had the name
Of always being kind?"

Try then each day, in kindly way,
To do a deed somehow,
That man may know, down here below,
A bit of heaven—now!

New Booster Pump To Pay For Self

Engineers estimate that savings effected in electric power will pay, in less than one year, the purchase price of the new booster pump recently installed at the Citrus avenue plant of the Daly City Municipal Water Department.

The new equipment boosts 620 gallons of water per minute up to reservoir No. 1 as compared to only 480 gallons per minute which was pumped by the old apparatus. The new pump uses 15 horse power of electrical energy less than the unit which it replaced, thus effecting the saving in operating costs.

Dr. Shaghoian Opens New Office Units

Dr. A. A. Shaghoian, Daly City health officer and practicing physician, is now enstated in one of the show places of Daly City at 6389 Mission street.

The office unit, located on the second floor, reaches the epitome in modern efficiency and beauty. The unit consists of a restful waiting room, an office assistant's room complete with built in files, a compact, sky lighted laboratory for research and medical tests, and a spacious private office combining consultation office, dressing nook and practicing room. All of these are decorated and equipped with the very best taste known to interior art and medical proficiency.

The remainder of the second floor is given over to living quarters of the doctor. Atop the structure is a beautiful solarium, sleeping room, bath and closets. A promenade deck and lounging quarters present a sweeping view of the ocean, Lake Merced and surrounding countryside.

Dr. Shaghoian's new office and quarters are the envy of every beauty loving person visiting them.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you."

These words from Romans comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, May 16, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Mortals and Immortals." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit" (John 3: 5, 6).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "As a material, theoretical life-basis is found to be a misapprehension of existence, the spiritual and divine Principle of man dwells upon human thought and leads it to 'where the young child was,'—even to the birth of a new-old idea, to the spiritual sense of being and of what Life includes" (p. 191).

Daly City Baseball Team Routs Three Pitchers In Garnering 18 Runs

The Daly City Tanforan baseball club defeated the San Mateo Blues, last Sunday, at the San Mateo Park, by the uneven score of 18 to 7.

The score does not tell the story in all its details because the Daly City athletes became wearied from their many journeys around the base paths and stopped trying during the latter part of the contest—if such it can be termed.

The huskies representing our home town shelled the offerings of the much touted ace pitcher of San Mateo, Walter Lister, to all corners of the lot, and, when he retired in the fourth frame, continued the bombardment to rout two other hurlers by blasting out a total of 24 solid base smackers before the debacle finally came to a close.

The attack was led by one Bill Miller from St. Mary's, new third sacker for the Tanfos. He was ably abetted and assisted by "Doc" Jacobson, Otten and, in fact, the entire Daly City lineup.

Some great plays were made by both teams, notwithstanding the large score, which would indicate an uninteresting contest.

Police Chief, City Employe To Rescue

Common police duties are law enforcement and traffic regulation, but seldom do they include rescuing a 3 year old boy who has locked himself in a bathroom.

Police Chief James Reardon and Arthur Bodien, superintendent of the Daly City Water Department, proved themselves heroes of the day, Friday of last week.

At 8:30 o'clock that morning little 3 year old Bobby Kelly of 114 Evergreen avenue went to the family bathroom and accidentally locked the door from the inside. Mrs. Kelly called the youngster, but he could not unlock the door.

Fearing that the child might fall in the bathtub and injure himself, Mrs. Kelly called Daly City police. Chief Reardon and Arthur Bodien responded. They coaxed Bobby to open the door with no avail.

General Jim climbed around to the bathroom window and entertained Bobby while Bodien picked the lock. Bobby strode out of the bathroom and demanded breakfast.

National Geographics Are Popular With Community Hospital Patients

Residents of San Mateo County, when the need for a library for patients at the hospital was made known, gave to the hospital more than 2000 books and periodicals. There was no vehicle with which to cart the books to the patients. A sum of $46.35 was taken from the benefit fund, which to date has totaled only $578, to buy a travelling book cart to make these books available to the patients.

In a recent interview with Mrs. Roberta Cameron, who is helping with the groundwork in establishment of a permanent library for the patients at the community hospital, she said: "The first two or three days I started on my rounds with the books, the patients hesitated, for fear they might have to pay something. I explained that there was no charge, and reading of these books has become a constant feature at the hospital."

"I feel it has done much to lift the morale of the patients. Most of the books, though good, are old, and they ask for the more up to date ones but I manage to sell my wares. There is a great demand for the National Geographic Magazine. No matter how old an issue, they love it. We can never have too many copies of that given us."

Friends of music, of the class and of the school are invited without charge.

Jeff Takes Third Place In PAL Meet—Olson Breaks 880 Yard Record

The surprising third place of Jefferson High School in the recent P. A. L. championships has given them courage to try for higher honors in the coming Northern Coast Section trackmeet to be held at Stanford Stadium tomorrow, Saturday.

Jefferson had been tabbed by several peninsula papers to score but nine points. However the Jefferson boys really went to town, scoring four first places, a second, third and a fourth for a total of 26 points.

Francis Olson, lanky track star, is Jefferson's best chance to score in the N. C. S. meet which brings to Stanford the greatest high school athletes from Santa Cruz to Eureka and as far inland as Vallejo.

Olson broke the 880 record which had once been held by the versatile Ben Eastman, the greatest middle distance runner the world has ever known, and later held by Menzel of Burlingame. Olson bettered the time of Menzel by three tenths of a second.

Buzzy Wright, Indian speed demon also has a fine chance to cop a place in the big meet.

Several other men including Stanley Simpson, Dale Hiltz, Dick Ragni, Elio Fontana and George Balletto will compete and may bring home a medal or two. A gold medal is given for first place, silver for second, bronze for third, and a bronze medal art for fourth place. The meet will commence at 10 a. m.

First Evolutionary Steps Of Hoodlum Gangster Sketched In Hit

In one of the most extraordinary sets erected within and beyond the confines of the proscenium arch—the dead end of a tenement street leading to the East River—Playwright Sidney Kingsley has sketched dramatically the first steps in the evolution of the hoodlum gangster in "Dead End," the sensational play which Norman Bel Geddes will present for a limited engagement, beginning Tuesday, May 18, at the Curran Theater, San Francisco, as part of its transcontinental tour. There will also be a matinee performance on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Those who visit the Curran Theater will see a stage transformed into a panorama of the sordid slums, with piers replacing the footlights, the orchestra pit providing a boundary of dank, murky river water swishing against the wharves. This is Norman Bel Geddes' tremendously realistic setting for "Dead End," in which a group of New York gutter snipes show graphically the influence of environment in the making of a criminal.

These lads emerge dripping with the scum of the river to wallow in the filth of the tenement. They talk the jargon of the streets and to them "Babyface Martin, a yellow killer with eight notches to his gun, is a hero. It is the slinking return of the gangster to the haunts of his youth that provides the gripping melodrama of "Dead End," even as the steady progress of unrestrained youth towards the reform school, and worse, provides the social import of this powerful and stirring play.

ORDINARY COLTS FAIL TO HANDLE PACKAGES

By J. W. MARCHBANK

When two colts possessing that intangible something known as "class" finish first and second in such a glamorous race as the Kentucky Derby it is time for a bit of comment as to the prospects of the pastime of racing. War Admiral is a good colt, capable of toting a substantial burden at a middle distance. Pompoon is almost as good a colt as War Admiral. But what about the others, which were beaten off?

It may seem discouraging the highly publicized three year old stakes did not result in more of a contest. War Admiral broke on top and under skillful handling stayed on the front end throughout the ten furlong journey. He was fortunate in having the rail position. Pompoon was slightly handicapped by drawing an outside position. With the difference in racing luck taken into consideration it may well be concluded War Admiral has "an edge" on the other fleet galloper, but not an excessive one.

As a general thing it may be said that all of the defeated band (back of Pompoon) with the possible exception of Sceneshifter were "anchored" by the weight—126 pounds—and the distance, ten furlongs. In a word, they were unable to show they are "Derby" colts. A few may develop into worth while performers in the next few months, even able to maintain a good pace more than a mile. Whether they will turn out to be weight carriers is questionable.

It will be recalled that Man o' War, sire of War Admiral, was a real stayer, though never called on to go farther than a mile and five furlongs. Man o' War had 126 pounds on his back in winning the Lawrence Realization. It is no wild guess his son will be a router, too.

An "expert" in the East advised the owner of Pompoon not to send the colt to Louisville, as it was his opinion that a mile and two furlongs was altogether beyond him. The same writer thought even one mile and seventy yards would stop the son of Pompey. Opinions as to the distance a colt, well conditioned as is Pompoon, will negotiate is risky business.

Almost any thoroughbred can run a fast quarter, but only one of the class of War Admiral can go out on top in a race at ten furlongs, stepping along at a good clip, not only the first part but the middle part and in the dash through the stretch, and resisting whatever challengers loom up. Three year olds at other tracks ran faster first quarters than War Admiral last Saturday and even faster second and third quarters, but fell away almost to a walk the last part. And they did not have their weight up.

Jeff Loses Ball Game To San Mateo

The Jefferson championship bound baseball nine received a setback when they were defeated by San Mateo 3 to 1, Friday of last week.

Jefferson was coasting along with a one run lead in the early stage of the game, by virtue of a single by Jack Haran and a rousing three bagger by pitcher Ed Owens. However, as the fifth inning opened the Indians were met by a barrage of hits which netted three runs and the ball game.

Ed Owens, Indian pitcher, allowed only four hits while Jefferson collected nine. However, San Mateo converted their four hits into enough runs to win the game.

Jefferson was setback into second place by this loss but regained their league leadership when Sequoia, the second place team, was defeated, Wednesday of this week.

The P. A. L. baseball standing now is:

|               | W | L | T |

"In developing the Coastside Transport Company," said Morgan, "we hope at the same time to contribute our share toward the development of the entire region we serve. There are thousands of San Franciscans who do not know of the beautiful country to be enjoyed along the coast on or near State Highway No. 1.

NOTES ON OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Photography has been the unique method which superintendent Crane has devised as a means of permanently recording the curriculum activities engaged in by the classes, under teacher guidance, in his district.

Visual constructive activities in social science, nature study, arithmetic, reading, arts and crafts and hygiene have been photographed by the superintendent and will be dated and filed in his office so that parents and teachers will definitely understand that bits of cardboard, wood, cloth, crayons, paint, paper, cellophane, paste, a pair of scissors and a pocket knife are all the requirements necessary to construct historic sites such as Independence Hall, Washington's home in Mount Vernon, the early California missions, the ruins of the Coliseum, a cotton plantation, types of homes of many people, maps, mathematical graphs, reading charts, science specimens and illustrations and various other displays.

MOUNTAIN PLAY TO BE "THUNDER IN PARADISE"

Production Has Background Based On History Of Hawaiian Islands

"Thunder in Paradise," tragic story of the Hawaiian Islands of 200 years ago, will be presented for the first time on any stage, on Sunday, May 23, as the twenty-fourth annual production in the natural amphitheater on Mount Tamalpais.

Wearing authentic reproductions of native Hawaiian costumes, flowers and leis, seventeen principals and some 100 extras will take part in the production this year.

Costumes and stage sets for this Hawaiian pageant are being designed by Leslie Crandall. Fred Lono Benrath of Honolulu will act as technical adviser for native pronunciations, authentic music and dance.

IN CAST

Don Wolden as Huahine, a native fisherman, will play opposite Ella McSpedden of the University of California Little Theater group. Miss McSpedden is cast as Leilani (flower of heaven), who because she will not accept the love of the high priest, is doomed to death in fiery heat of the volcano Mauna Loa.

The story of the play is set in the Hawaiian Islands during the latter part of the eighteenth century, at the time of their discovery by Captain Cook of the British navy. Captain Cook is played by Elmer Collett, a favorite of past mountain play audiences.

Each year the Mountain Play Association selects a different drama to serve as the vehicle for the current production. Classics from the literature of many nations appear in the list of past performances, interspersed at rare intervals by an original manuscript, written especially for the mountain theater.
